Dear Valued Customer,

It is with pleasure that EGLO Canada announces the nomination of Omnilumen as our representation in the specification market as well as electrical distributor channel for the GTA market.

Covering various interveners within the specification market (engineers, architects and designers), Omnilumen is committed to providing our customers with creative lighting solutions, unparalleled service, and the highest levels of technical support.

Omnilumen is the ideal partner to strategically position EGLO Canada in the new construction and retrofit multi-residential, and hospitality markets as well as to support the EGLO brand in the commercial decorative lighting market.

Please continue to send all quote requests to quotations@eglo.com while copying Omnilumen.

Thank you,

Denise Rumsey
