

Do You Have Questions About NHSN?

The Georgia Department of Public Health's Healthcare-Associated Infections Antimicrobial Resistance (HAI AR) Program is here for you. This great team can provide technical assistance for the National Healthcare Safety Network (NHSN).

National Healthcare Safety Network (NHSN)

Technical assistance includes the following:

- Data Analysis and Interpretation: Requests related to NHSN data analyses, interpretation of findings, and using data for decision making.
- Data Entry: Requests related to NHSN data entry errors and issues.
- Data Quality Assurance: Requests related to NHSN data correction and ensuring NHSN data quality.
- Data Validation: Requests related to NHSN data validation activities.
- Facility Administrator: Requests related to on-boarding/changing the NHSN facility administrator.
- Facility Enrollment: Requests related to enrolling a facility in NHSN.
- Healthcare-Associated Infection (HAI) Surveillance: Requests related to specific HAI surveillance and protocols.
- Location Mapping: Requests related to mapping patient care areas to location(s) as defined by NHSN.
- NHSN Access: Requests related to NHSN user access requests, issues accessing NHSN application.
- NHSN Training Resources: Requests related to NHSN trainings, resources, and education.
- Reporting Requirements: Requests related to NHSN reporting requirements for CMS, federal/state reporting mandates. etc.
- SAMS Access: Requests related to SAMS access for NHSN users.

Please contact us at nhsntechsupport@dph.ga.gov.

For assistance with application of NHSN definitions, healthcare associated infections, or infection prevention, contact the Infection Prevention Team at HAI@dph.ga.gov

For assistance with antibiotic stewardship, contact as@dph.ga.gov