

GHA Welcomes New Emergency Preparedness Communication Manager

Selelia Williams has joined GHA as the Emergency Preparedness Communications Manager. Selelia will manage and provide training on the communication platforms offered to coalition members through the Healthcare Preparedness Program (HPP) grant.

Selelia was previously a supervisor at LifeSouth Community Blood Center. Her experience and skill set working with hospitals will significantly assist and complement GHA's Emergency Preparedness team.

Selelia may be reached at swilliams@gha.org or 770-249-4506.
